C) Grammar

This sentence appears in the episode

I realise you guys have been wondering what happened to Carol and I (Ross)

‘Wonder’ means to think about a question. It is similar to think about.

When we use ‘wonder’ the order that follows often changes, some words are omitted and some verbs may change. The original question. Look at the following examples.

Wonder

What time is it?’

I wonder what time it is? (subject and verb change order)

‘Where does Jane work?’

I wonder where Jane works? (the auxiliary ‘do’ or ‘did’ is taken out and the verb changes)

‘Is she happy?’

I wonder if she is happy (when the answer is yes/no we add if and change the order of the verb and subject)

Change the following questions to make sentences with 'wonder'.

1. Are we near the station?
I wonder.....
2. Where should I go on holiday?
I wonder.....
3. Is it hot outside?
I wonder.....
4. What time is the next train?
I wonder.....
5. What type of films does Tanya like?
I wonder.....
6. Will I get the job?
I wonder.....
7. When did Mike arrive?
I wonder.....
8. Can we work from home?
I wonder.....
9. Do I have time for a quick snack?
I wonder.....
10. When does Tim normally finish work?
I wonder.....
