C) Grammar

In this episode this sentence is used:

- 'Do you think things would have been better if you'd just told her the truth?' (Monica)

Third Conditional

(If + past perfect) + (would + have + past participle)

It is used to talk about a situation in the past that did not happen and the imaginary consequences.

For example:

If I had woken up earlier, I wouldn't have missed the bus.

The order can be changed

I wouldn't have missed the bus if I had woken up earlier

Contractions are often used for both had ('d) and would ('d)
